

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR

Vol. 47—No. 49

BARTON, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1918

Single Copies 5 Cents.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Advertisements will be inserted under this heading at five cents per word for first insertion and one cent per word thereafter. Cash must accompany the order. No advertisement will be inserted for less than one week.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Large Stewart coal stove for sale cheap. C. S. Stevens, Orleans.

FOR SALE—Four-foot dry wood, also green black wood. Stanley Paquette, Orleans.

FOR SALE—Residence of late Mrs. McQueen in Glover village. Inquire of M. W. Johnson.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—registered three-year-old Guernsey bull. F. H. Bean, West Glover.

FOR SALE—Bull calves, 93 plus per cent Guernsey blood. $10. W. H. Keating, Barton.

FOR SALE—My residence in Orleans, one of the best in town. C. A. Dodge, N. E. Telephone.

FOR SALE—Registered Ayrshire bull calves. Extra well bred from large producing cows. Butterfield Farms, North Derby.

HAY FOR SALE—Both pressed and loose, bright and good quality, and cut early. W. S. Kingsbury, Derby, Vt.

FOR SALE—Fine village home with a quantity of land. For particulars inquire of E. E. Mathews, Orleans.

FOR SALE—10 H. P. Woodpecker gasoline engine, one H. P. Sampson power, one hand derrick. John Barnard, Barton.

FOR SALE—One 8 h. p. boiler, one 5 h. p. steam engine in good condition. Will sell cheap. J. W. Elliott, B. & M. pumping station, Barton.

FOR SALE—New modern house, eight rooms and bath, furnace heat, electric lights. Land for large garden or house lots. Mrs. Flossie P. Stoddard, Orleans.

FOR SALE—New Ford touring car, latest style, with speedometer and other extras. Price $625. Also eight-inch timber and other lumber. Inquire of Harry Darling, E. G. Darling, Marshfield.

WANTED

WANTED—Small 5x5 filing cabinet. Inquire Monitor Office.

WANTED—Live poultry. Elrick, Barton.

WANTED—Sound, clean sacks. R. P. Webster, Barton.

WANTED—Good board sawyer, also turner on carriage. F. H. Heerman & Son, Coventry.

WANTED—Men to solicit orders for fruit and ornamental trees, roses, shrubs, etc. Part or full time. Permanent position. Pay weekly. Apply C. W. Stuart & Co., Newark, New York state.

WANTED—500 hens next Monday and Tuesday for Christmas orders. Phone me evenings and mornings on above days. Out of town other days. Strawn, Orleans, Phone 142-14.

WANTED—Dressed hogs, live poultry and fresh eggs next Tuesday at Orleans. Express station. E. S. Kelley, Tel. 123-13, Orleans.

WANTED—Crocheters, experienced on Saxony booties, sacques. Best pay, steady home work. Send sample stitches. Simon Ascher & Co. Inc., 309-911 New Rosenbloom Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.

WANTED—To purchase certain articles of furniture which were kept, but sold at G. R. Watson's auction several years ago in Lowell. I especially desire to locate a hand-carved oak woodbox. These goods were stored in the house and sold by mistake. Any information will be gratefully received. Ethel H. Dunbar, Bear Lake, Mich.

LOST

LOST—Jersey heifer from Stevens' pasture. Finder please notify owner, Raphael Davignon, West Glover.

LOST—Missing from Hotel Barton, a dark, tiger-striped Angora cat, answers name, "Mikoy." Reward if brought back alive. Notify Chas. Darling, Hotel Barton, or Mrs. J. V. Rowen, Barre.

LOST—From Will Clary's pasture in Wheelock two registered Jersey heifers. One light fawn, one red fawn. Both two years old. One due to freshen soon. Ear tags. Any accurate information will be gladly paid for. Brondale Farm, East Hardwick.

FOUND

FOUND—Light-colored yearling Jersey heifer came into my enclosure Nov. 16. Owner may have same by paying charges and proving property. Dona Campbell, Orleans, R. F. D.

Poultry Meetings.

Prof. A. L. Smith of the Extension service will be in the county all this week attending meetings with the County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent. The last two meetings will be held Thursday and Friday nights in the towns of Derby and Irasburg respectively. Anyone who wishes may bring a bag of hens to any meeting and Prof. Smith will cull the flocks from the layers so that anyone present may learn to do it with their whole flock.

BARTON LOCAL NOTES

F. W. Cutting is in Boston and New York on business.

Mrs. George Goodro was in Orleans recently to visit a sick relative.

R. G. Stiles is building a large barn on his property on Lincoln avenue.

Mrs. Will Locke, who has been caring for Mrs. I. T. Day, is sick in bed. Walter Day of Norwood, N. Y., has been visiting his grandfather, I. T. Day.

The Afternoon Study club meets with Mrs. W. E. Hanson Thursday afternoon.

Charles Morse was home from Greenville, Mass., to spend Thanksgiving day.

Miss Marion Redfield is singing in the Congregational church at Newport, Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Heath entertained a dinner party of twelve on Thanksgiving day.

Ruth and Karlene King of Passumpsic spent the week-end with their cousin, Marjorie King.

M. J. Reynolds, who has been working at Orleans for some months, is driving the hotel bus again.

The families of George and Chester King attended the funeral of C. C. King in West Glover Monday.

Mrs. Martha Akley and son have gone to Bellows Falls to be with Mr. Akley, who is employed there.

Roy Ryder of Springfield, Mass., spent Thanksgiving with his parents, returning to his work Saturday.

Miss Ollie Sheldon spent Thanksgiving in Berlin, N. H., with her brother, Fred Sheldon, and family.

Miss Vera Gilman of Manchester, N. H., formerly of Barton, is visiting at F. E. Ryder's, and other friends.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Charles Cutler Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 10. Topic, "Our Children."

Miss Eva Gilpin and Mrs. Wallace H. Gilpin are in New York, called there by the serious illness of a nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Dunn have moved from a tenement in the Williams house on High street to the Page house.

A. D. Seaver, who has been spending a ten-day furlough at his home, returned to camp at Dayton, O., Tuesday evening.

Thanksgiving exercises were held in the Devereux school Wednesday afternoon, the 27th. Fifteen visitors were present.

Miss Bertha Simpson, who recently underwent an operation at Sunshine sanitarium, has so far recovered as to return home.

H. J. McCaffrey and Miss Katherine Neagle of Lyndonville spent the Thanksgiving vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cota.

Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Turner were called to Bellows Falls the first of the week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Turner's mother.

Mrs. Frank Paddleford and daughter are in Beverly, Mass., for the winter, hoping a less rigorous climate will benefit her health.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Caron have moved to the Edith Comstock house on Glover street, until recently occupied by Mrs. John Curtis.

E. J. Rutter, optometrist, will be at O. H. Mossman's Thursday and Friday, the 12th and 13th. Call and have your eyes examined.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Spaulding and two children of Newport and Miss Bessie Tucker of Woodsville spent Thursday at W. B. Proctor's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Huntington entertained their family with the exception of Sadie, who is in Washington, D. C., on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. A. S. Redfield, who has been in Brownington for several weeks, helping to care for the sick ones in the Edmund Gross family, is home.

Rev. W. A. Warner was called to Bristol the last of the week to officiate at the funeral of a prominent resident there. He returned Tuesday.

MISCELLANEOUS

VERMONT REGISTRARS now on sale at this office. Bigger and better than ever. Price, 35 cents, by mail, 40 cents. Monitor Press.

TO EXCHANGE—A good work horse for a new milch cow or dry block wood. H. L. Bassett, Orleans.

INSURANCE—Best stock and mutual companies. Surety bonds. F. W. Baldwin, Agent, Barton.

FARMERS' NOTICE—Livestock Monday, Dec. 16. FOR SALE—Ryan sleigh, newly painted. Dodge, Orleans.

Congregational Church Notes.

Rev. W. A. Warner, Pastor.

Sunday, Dec. 8th.

10.45, Morning service.

12.00, Sunday school.

6.00, Christian Endeavor meeting.

7.00, Preaching service.

The regular mid-week prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7.30.

E. L. Alexander of Glover, a former pastor there, preached for Rev. W. A. Warner Sunday morning in the absence from town of Mr. Warner. He used for a text, the words, "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." Mr. Alexander spoke very interestingly upon the jealousies and envies that enter life to disturb it, and told how love would remedy these things.

Miss Marion Bickford, teacher of vocal music at Montpelier seminary, sang an offertory Sunday morning to the delight of the audience.

Arrangements are practically complete for a canvass Sunday afternoon of all people in Barton who belong to the Congregational parish for pledges for the work of the church the coming year. Church expenses have increased with the increase in all other things, and expensive repairs are needed on the church building. The budget asked for is therefore larger than heretofore.

Mrs. John Curtis has vacated the Edith Comstock house on Glover street and gone to spend the winter with her husband, who is inspector of government shoes made by contract.

Three or four inches of snow have fallen in the past week and Monday morning the thermometer dropped to a few points below zero. Occasionally a sleigh is seen but wheels are the rule.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Day express their heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors, who so kindly remembered them on Thanksgiving day and other occasions and for the flowers sent in from time to time.

Miss Eva McDonald, bookkeeper at the Roy stone shed, who was called to Bennington by the serious illness of a brother with pneumonia, was herself taken with influenza at her home in Barre and has just returned.

The war benefit carnival mentioned some time ago as being planned for early in December, was necessarily given up on account of the epidemic at the time rehearsals were to begin. The idea may be carried out later in the winter.

Word from John Parker, who left October 9th for California in an automobile, tells of his arrival in Los Angeles on November 22. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stuart of McIndoes and others to make up a party of two cars.

The Burroughs orchestra of Newport will give a concert and dance at Seaver's hall Friday evening. The orchestra is composed of five of the best musicians in this vicinity and promises a rare evening's entertainment. Concert from 8.15 to 8.45, ad.

Mrs. Minnie Shattuck and daughter, Florence, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Porter spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hubbard. They returned to Danville Friday night as Mrs. Porter is teaching in that town and Mr. Porter is working for B. C. Shattuck.

Miss Amy Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Davis, was critically ill with pneumonia in Los Angeles, Cal., on Thanksgiving day, according to a letter from friends there. It was reported the day the letter was dispatched that her condition seemed improved.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. C. F. Mathewson, who was known here through her summer visits. She suffered a stroke of paralysis the latter part of August and died Oct. 19. She was a woman of ability, the daughter of a former governor of Maine.

Frank Gilman and Mrs. A. A. Lamoray were married Saturday and left Saturday night for Manchester, N. H., where they will live this winter. Mr. Gilman will work at his trade in an automobile paint shop. The Star restaurant, conducted by Mrs. Lamoray, will be closed until March 15.

A representative number of Barton men met at the Improvement club rooms Tuesday evening and formed a War Chest association by electing J. F. Batchelder president; E. W. Barrow, vice president; and C. S. Webster, secretary and treasurer. These men with Wallace H. Gilpin, C. A. Barrows and F. S. Whitcher were made a board of control. This association will have charge of war calls from this date on.

Word has been received here of the death of George Blake Jacobs, son of W. L. and Mary B. Jacobs of South W. L., Cal., on November 26 of tuberculosis. George was born in Barton October 13, 1902. He has been in delicate health for nearly two years and has been unable to attend high school this year, but his death was a shock to all, following a severe hemorrhage. He was universally liked, had a rare faculty of making friends, and would not admit that he was sick. The Jacobs family moved from Barton to California in 1904.

The Woman's Literary club held a very pleasant meeting with Miss Baxter on the evening of Nov. 27. Twelve members answered the roll call, "What Have We to Be Thankful for This Year?" One visitor was present. The penny collection amounted

GLOVER BUYS QUOTA.

First Town in County to Complete Purchase of W. S. S.

The report of the purchase of War Stamps given out by state headquarters on Nov. 16, shows that Glover is the first town in Orleans county to reach its quota of the actual purchase of stamps. Starred towns in the detail below have no postoffices.

	Total	Percentage	Per
Albany	$1,852.25	920	$2.01
Barton	41,554.60	3,246	12.43
Brownington	466.82	760	.61
Charleston	3,242.45	993	3.27
Coventry	2,640.82	616	4.29
Craftsbury	11,576.43	1,119	10.35
Derby	25,913.05	1,639	15.81
GLOVER	16,167.82	932	17.35
Greenboro	5,974.30	931	6.42
Holland	722	722	.83
Irasburg	8,588.47	983	8.74
Jay	513	513	.61
Lowell	7,553.23	1,086	6.96
Morgan	900.05	463	1.94
Newport	56,729.42	5,684	2.96
Troy	12,798.20	1,686	7.59
Westfield	950.00	613	1.55
Westmore	925.88	931	2.80
Total	$197,838.40	23,337	$8.48

Two important things need now to be said to those who have signed pledges for the purchase of War Savings Stamps.

First, Vermont has thus far met every call for the purchase of the war to the last. The second state must not fall in the War Savings Stamp campaign. Every pledge must be redeemed in order to meet our quota, and only a little more than a month remains to accomplish this result.

Second, your pledge is a bona fide contract between you and the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and no person who promised to buy can be excused from carrying out his contract to the letter. The pledge is personal and is an agreement that must be kept without any failure. See to it that the stamps you promised to buy are purchased without delay.

Towns and cities printed in capitals have already exceeded their quota in monetary value of sales.

To 26 cents. After the adjournment of the business meeting, Mrs. Vercoe gave a very interesting paper on, "Our Pilgrim Fathers." A bright little story, "The Thanksgiving Crossroads," was read by Miss Scott. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, wafers, coffee and candy were served and a pleasant social hour followed.

The Afternoon Study club met with Mrs. Etta McLellan November 21st. The topic for the meeting was "The Greatest Organization in the World." Roll call, "What Do I Know About It?" A very interesting talk was given by the state president, Mrs. Minnie L. Pearson on "What Is the Federal Prohibition Amendment and Vermont's Responsibility." Paper, "The Tree in Sentiment and Literature," Mrs. Elma Warner. This paper was to have been given at the last meeting. Song, "Victory" and "When the Flag Goes By," Mrs. Ruth Webster. Meeting closed by singing America. Fifteen members and four visitors were present.

COVENTRY

Miss Bessie Tucker spent Thanksgiving in Barton.

A. Carbee has gone to Lennoxville for a few days on business.

Mrs. Woodcock of Troy was a guest at Milo Hancock's last week.

Ernest Drake of New Hampshire was the guest of his parents last week.

Mrs. Carroll Brooks spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wells.

C. C. Noyes and friend of Sherbrooke spent a few days last week at Bert Ware's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cook and children spent Thanksgiving day with their mother, Mrs. Jane Hermon.

Mrs. Nora Brown and brother, Cleon of Springfield, spent Thanksgiving with their father, E. A. Corrow.

Corp. Quincy Goss has been discharged from the service and arrived home from Camp Dix Monday.

The friends of Will Boynton will be sorry to learn that he has been ill with influenza at his home in Bennington.

Maurice Eaton of Lebanon, N. H., has been spending a few days at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. S. Eaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Corrow and children of Newport East end spent Thanksgiving with his father, E. A. Corrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boynton and son of St. Albans spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Boynton.

Mrs. Mona and Blanche Bickford of Orleans spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bickford.

Thanksgiving parties were held at the homes of Homer Wright, W. A. Elliot, H. C. Cleveland, Ira Wheelock, C. D. Wilder and E. A. Corrow.

Let's not be slackers on the towel proposition for the hospitals in France. Hand them in at once to Mrs. A. D. Thurbur. Surely every family could spare just one towel for this good work.

Alphonse Carbee of Lennoxville, P. Q., and Mrs. Jane Hermon were quietly married at her home Saturday morning by Rev. C. C. Claris. Their friends wish to extend hearty congratulations.

The churches of the country will make a canvass of their respective towns the week of Dec. 8, for the pur-

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

Rev. M. A. Turner, Pastor

Sunday, Dec. 8th

Morning worship at 10.45.

Sunday school, 12.00.

Junior League at 4 p. m.

Epworth League, 6.00.

Evening service, 7.00.

Prayer meeting Dec. 5 at 7.30 p. m.

Choir rehearsal will be at Clarence Webster's at 7.30 Friday evening.

Sunday being communion service, Rev. Turner took for his text, Luke 22:19, "And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for thee: this do in remembrance of me." He pictured Christ in the various walks of life, meeting the final tests, which proved his perfection. He asked us to look back to the time we first met Christ, then think of Him as we walked with Him yesterday. He made a brief summary of Christ's life work, which left a most vivid portrayal before us as he gave the invitation to partake of the Lord's Supper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, formerly of the Free Will Baptist church of Lynn, Mass., have come in full connection with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard and their daughter, Mary, formerly of South Royalton, after their church letters were read, received the right hand of fellowship.

pose of raising money for the pastor's salary and other necessary expenses of the church for the coming year. Our committee will call this week, so please be prepared to respond.

Remember the date, Monday evening, Dec. 9th, Miss Mina Spaulding of the White Entertainment bureau of Boston, an exceptionally interesting entertainer, will give, with others from out of town, a fine entertainment in the town hall, under the auspices of the Red Cross. Don't miss this treat. Prices 25 and 15 cents.

Fire was discovered in one of the bedrooms in A. J. Morissette's house, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Morissette was alone with the children but with great presence of mind succeeded in extinguishing it, before much damage was done. It is thought the children may have set the bed on fire playing with matches.

Peter Douglass was taken to the hospital in St. Johnsbury last week. His limb was amputated but he only lived a short time. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, two sons, Charlie and Willie, and three daughters, Mrs. Mabel Police of Newport, Mrs. Pearl Cummings and Miss Daisy of this place, who have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

BROWNINGTON CENTER

J. C. Bullock is home from Westfield, Mass., for a few days.

J. C. Clough, Norma and Eunice Stone are sick with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallup, who have been having the grip, are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinney of Charleston spent Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. T. G. Crandall.

Mrs. Harry Clough died Friday after a few days' illness with pneumonia. Obituary next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lund of Orleans were at the home of their son, L. N. Lund, Thanksgiving day.

William Hall, who has been working at John Young's, has closed his labors there and gone to Barton.

Mrs. J. G. Martin of South Albany is at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. G. Stone, to help care for the sick ones.

BROWNINGTON

Mrs. Leon Goings of Franklin is visiting at G. A. Goings's.

Mrs. Grace Gross has moved to Orleans.

Leon Marsh has moved into Hale Clark's house at the village.

Celeste Caron has gone to Manchester, N. H., to attend business college.

Albert Caron, who is at U. V. M., Burlington, is very sick with influenza.

Glen Dodge recently bought the entire stock of cattle at the E. A. Gross farm.

Ruby Dutton was at home from St. Johnsbury for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Fred Newton hurt one finger quite badly while working in the woods recently.

Mr. Killgore of New Hampshire was a guest of Mrs. Flora Shattuck recently.

Albert St. Peter's family, who have been very sick with influenza, are all improving.

Mrs. Harriman and adopted daughter of Newport, recently visited at James Young's.

Mrs. Joseph Cartwright of Winchester, P. Q., and her son, James, of Sherbrooke, visited Mrs. Leslie Dutton, recently.

Mrs. C. E. Jenkins and family of Orleans and Dr. and Mrs. Longe of Newport were guests at H. H. Day's Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Waterman and Mrs. Sydney Laws were called to Orleans Sunday by the death of their grandfather, Jared Joslyn.

John Keating.

John Keating, an almost life-long resident of this town, died at the home of his son, John, at West Lebanon, N. H., Saturday morning, Nov. 23, after an illness of eight weeks.

All that loving hands and kind hearts could do was done for him in his declining years. The body was brought to Barton, Nov. 26, where a requiem High Mass was held at St. Paul's church.

Mr. Keating was born in County Kerry, Ireland, June 24, 1832. He came to this country in early childhood and soon bought the farm upon which he had lived for so many years.

He is survived by five daughters, three sons and eight grandchildren, who each bear the full measure of sorrow at the loss of a kind-hearted, loving father and grandfather. The daughters are Mrs. J. B. Cassidy of Chicago, Mrs. F. J. Pierce of South Norwalk, Conn., Mrs. C. C. W. Heath of Barton, Miss Nellie Keating of West Lebanon, N. H., and Mrs. Powers of Fitzdale, Vt. The sons are John Keating of West Lebanon, N. H., R. P. Keating of Hartford, Conn., and W. H. Keating of Barton, who owns the old farm homestead.

Mr. Keating was a man of rare capacity, of strict integrity, of lofty purposes and high ideals. Such qualities could not but gain for him the respect and admiration of all who knew him and the confidence of his fellow citizens.

But better than all, he was an earnest Christian, who loved his church and followed her teaching with the simplicity of a child.

He was a veteran of the Civil war, ever faithful to the land of his adoption, he retained a filial love for the land of his birth and for the race to which he belonged.

Reverently, yet with poignant grief he was laid at rest in the Catholic cemetery at East Albany by the side of his wife, who died many years ago. The floral tributes were most beautiful, especially the wreath given by his old G. A. R. comrades, whom he esteemed so highly.

There ended a good life, ambitious to the end. His children rise up to call him blessed.

The sale which the children of the village school held last week was well attended and $9.00 was realized for the Victory boys and girls.

The grange met for a regular meeting Nov. 26 and elected the following officers: Master, Mrs. O. A. Grow; overseer, Mrs. G. A. Goings; lecturer, Mrs. F. V. Swanson; steward, Mrs. F. E. Newton; assistant steward, Mrs. Leslie Dutton; chaplain, Mrs. F. E. Hitchens; treasurer, Mrs. Will Wiggin; secretary, Mrs. E. S. Kelley; gatekeeper, Mrs. B. J. Mack; Ceres, Mrs. L. T. Grow; Pomona, Mrs. E. J. Caron; Flora, Mrs. R. A. Dutton; lady assistant, Mrs. G. E. Newton.</